THE LEEWARD ISLANDS

Here's how it works

Small group comfort

You'll sail in comfort on a 45ft catamaran as part of a small group of yachts. Each cabin sleeps two and has a private bathroom.

Your group leaders

Jennifer Westfall and Pierre Deligne will be the hosts on this guided sailing holiday.

Pierre is a French national who has sailed professionally for most of his working life and now lives on Taha'a. He will be captain on one of the yachts and will ensure the safety of all yachts on this sailing holiday.

Jennifer's passion for Tahiti will enrich your experience on this magical adventure. All you need to do is grab some friends and book a yacht or select a cabin and join other like-minded adventurers. From the time you arrive in Raiatea, your hosts will be there to provide support and make your sailing holiday stress free!

Marine Photographer Andrea Francolini will also be there to help you improve your photography skills.

How do I get there?

Non-stop flights to Papeete, are available from a number of airlines. Air Tahiti Nui and Air France offer direct services from Los Angeles while United and French Bee airlines offer direct services from San Francisco. There are also weekly flights available from Hawaii with Hawaiian Airlines.

Once in Tahiti, the island of Raiatea, our adventure base, is just a short flight away. A hotel stopover at the wonderful Manava Hotel in Papeete is included before and after the yacht charter for your travel ease.

There are three inter-island flights required with your international ticket; Papeete to Raiatea, Bora Bora to Huahine and then Huahine back to Papeete. Contact us for further details. We are here to assist you every step of the way.

Life on board

Your catamaran offers space and stability on the water. It's modern and comfortable, with areas to relax both below and on deck. Throw down a cushion, curl up and read a book, or make use of the easy access to the water for a swim.

Your travelling companions

Every group is different, but typically you'll find your co-travellers will be aged between 40 and 65, enjoy keeping active, love the ocean, have a sense of adventure, love fine foods, an occasional glass of wine, and a good chat.

Your yacht

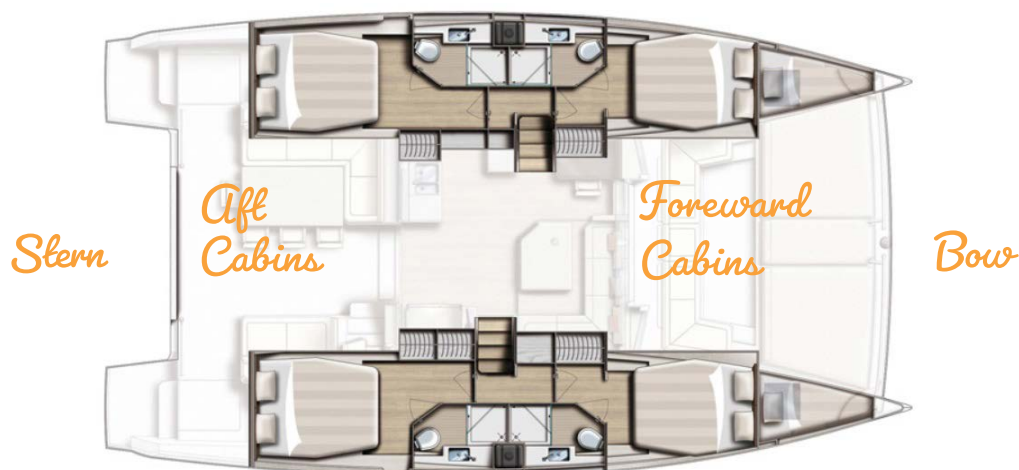

Like a small apartment on the ocean, the Catamaran is spacious, modern, light and airy. Unpack your bags, move in and enjoy being transported through the lagoon's crystal waters.

Designed for style and pace, this yacht has all the creature comforts above and below deck, while maintaining its performance under sail.

Each cabin offers a double bed with ample space and storage.

European sockets are located in each cabin and in the saloon. The yacht works on a 220V / 12V system with an inverter on board. An adaptor will be required to convert 220V to 110V.

All cabins have fans and are fully air conditioned with individual controls.
